

I would like to ask that the FCC not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana Telephone Privacy law has improved my time at home, where I used to receive 12 calls per week, now I only receive one. Indiana Telephone Privacy law also keeps the telephone Scam people from preying on the elderly costing them large financial sums that they cannot afford when most are on fixed incomes.